There are few cities which dazzle as brightly in the day and in the night like Bangkok, and lyf’s newest property in Sukhumvit 8 taps on its electrifying energy to offer an authentic stay experience in the most diverse part of town.
A perfect fit for millennial-minded travellers and digital nomads who love to get right into where the action is, the buzzing coliving property is a mere 5-minute walk from Nana BTS Skytrain station and a literal few steps from the city’s teeming thoroughfare of Sukhumvit Road.
